

WHAT'S HOT IN SOUTHWEST FLORIDA

CURATED CANDLES Southwest Florida spa owner Kay Casperson is all about wellness, and her designer soy candles, made with essential oils, are just the ticket for relaxation. In scents such as lemon lavender and marine salt air, they burn clean for up to 40 hours. $27, Kay-Casperson.com or Kay Casperson spa locations at South Seas Island Resort on Captiva and Sundial Beach Resort & Spa on Sanibel

ROMANTIC LIGHTING Add a touch of elegance and romance to any room with the St. Simons line of chandeliers from world-renowned Schonbek. These stunning chandeliers come with six or four arms in Champagne gold or heritage polished silver finishes. Starting at $999, Wilson Lighting in Naples, Lighting First in Bonita Springs or schonbek.com.

BAMBOO SLEEPWEAR As luxurious as cashmere but lightweight and breathable, Cariloha pajamas are made from bamboo. Promising to keep you three degrees cooler than non-bamboo fabric, this soft apparel comes in a range of styles for both women and men. Pants $49, shirt $34, Cariloha Naples or cariloha.com

SLEEK SEAT The latest creation from architect and designer Nina Edwards Anker was inspired by the Arctic landscape she experienced in Norway. The Cape Chair takes its name from the double-curved shape of its back. A single front leg is countered by the capelike back. Made from solid wood, it has a high gloss finish; cushions optional. $7,320, neastudio.com